Dear Parents

_O Lord, you search me and you know me,
you know my resting and my rising,
you discern my purpose from afar._

_(Psalm 139)_

This psalm for the mass of the day for 23rd August reminds us that wherever we are, God is always with us, we are never on our own. God has joy in watching us grow and delights in our lives, but he is not an inactive observer - He guides and protects us. God knows us and knows of what we are capable, what are our strengths, and what lies hidden even from our own view. This can be intimidating to consider, but it can also be a great relief.

No matter what stumbling blocks we have before us, God is with us in the midst of them. Even on the darkest days when we cannot see our way through the many complexities of life, our God can be our strength. God reminds us that we have it within our capacity to change, to cope, to thrive and to move forward.

It is this powerful message that we want our children to hear, know and remember and it is through each of us, the most significant adults in their lives -- parents and teachers that our children will see this lived out. We each then have an awesome responsibility to help our children to come to know and trust in the unconditional love of God our Father. It is our responsibility to authentically demonstrate for our children the way in which we come into relationship with God. It is within the Catholic community of our parish and our school that we receive nourishment and support for coming to know God within the midst of us.

Each Friday when our primary classes attend the parish mass within one of our learning spaces they are blessed by the companionship of our wider parish members who by their presence each week nurture their love of God by the example they provide for our children. We are truly thankful for the rich contribution they make to our Holy Cross community.

Yours sincerely,

Leanne Nettleton
